Away Across the Mississippi is Held : Convincing Conversation

"I tell you sir, that they are one of the seatest combinations ever produced, and my experience of that sort of thing has been wide enough to entitle my judgement to some eaker's friend, with a little yawn, as though he didn't take much interest in the subject "I have never been able to see much difference in those things. They are all pretty nearly the same size, and made of about the same stuff." The talk of which the foregoing is a fragment, took place in Gallatin, Massouri, not long ago, in the snug office of Dr. M. P. Flowers, one of the leading physicians of the State who followed up the vein in which he had intraduced it substantially in these words: sense, that is the rigmarole of a boy, or rather of a man who doesn't know or doesnt care what he says. Those things, as you call them, are just as different as the moon is from green choese. Now, liniments, letions, and ointments are very good in most cases for the relief of pain or inflammation. But in the first place they are unclean. They soil the hands and the linen, besides being always out of reach when they are most want-

"Well, my dear Doctor," sighed the tray eler from the North, "what would you have? This is a wretched world anyhow, and nothing is ever at hand when it is wanted. You oun't suggest anything-

"Yes. I can," broke in the Doctor, thump "Tes, I can," broke in the Dector, thumping the table with his fist," I can suggest BEN-SUN'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTER. I have tried it on my patients, and I have tried it on my patients, and I have tried it on my patients, and in all cases rollef has followed in from three to forty-eight hours. The old plasters are stage coaches—the Capcine is a telegraphic dispatch. For instance, in cases of Neuralpia, Musculer Rheumatism, Lumbago, retarded action of the Kidneys, and—""I give it up, Dector, and in case of need I'll buy Beason's, said the traveler pleasantly. That is what a great many people are doing. They don't know just what is the matter, but they have a combination of pains and aches, and each month they grow worse.

The only sure remedy yet found is Brown's Iron BITTERS, and this by rapid and thorough assimilation with the blood purifies and enriches it, and rich, strong blood flowing to every part of the system repairs the wasted tissues, drives out disease and gives health and strength.

This is why Brown's IRON BITTERS will cure kidney and liver diseases, consumption, rheumatism, neuraigia, dyspepsia, malaria, intermittent fevers, &c.

> Mr. Simon Blanchard, a well-known citizen of Hayesville, Meade county, Kennicke, says: "My wife had been sick for a long time, and her constitution was all broken down and she was unable to work. She was advised to use Brown's Iron Enters, and found it to work like a charm. We would not now be girth out it for any consideration, 24 seconsider it the best toom to the world."

Brown's Iron BITTERS is not a drink and does not contain whiskey. It is the only preparation of Iron that causes no injurious fects. Get the genuin Don't be imposed on a imitations.

NASHVILLE, June 1 .- Col Buckner H. Payne, better known in the south as "Ariel," died in the Davidson county asylum for the poor last night, aged 84. He was at one time considered the greatest logician in the south and wrote a book in which he argued that a negro was an inferior being and had no soul. At one period he was in affluent circumstances, but died blind. A year before Garfield was shot he predicted the assassination. He predicted smallpox in 1880, to occur over the entire country in 1883, and his own death on the last day of May, 1883. At his request he was buried in a square box, made of fresh pine lumber, nailed down tightly with nails. He requested that no screws be made to the
